Defence surge could help jumpstart Europe's flat economy

The EU's defense spending surge aims to counter security threats while stimulating its stagnant economy. With reduced U.S. aid to Ukraine, Europe sees military investment as both a necessity and an economic boost, though budget constraints and coordination challenges remain.

Trump to revoke legal status for 240,000 Ukrainians as US steps up deportations

Trump's plan to revoke the legal status of Ukrainian refugees in the U.S. could force thousands to leave, escalating tensions over immigration and U.S. policy on the Ukraine conflict. The move may face legal and political pushback, especially amid ongoing instability in Ukraine.

US-Hamas direct talks: What's happening and what comes next

The U.S. has engaged in direct talks with Hamas to secure American hostages in Gaza, a major shift from its policy of avoiding designated terrorist groups. Led by envoy Adam Bohler, the negotiations in Doha aim to bypass intermediaries like Qatar and Egypt.
